

BlckBx Travel

Terms & Conditions

1. About Us

BlckBx Travel Ltd (“we”, “us”, “our”) is a travel agency and concierge service arranging travel services on behalf of clients.

Company Name: BlckBx Travel Ltd

Registered Address: 86-90 Paul Street, London EC2A 4NE

We act primarily as an agent for third-party travel suppliers, including airlines, hotels, tour operators, cruise providers and transfer companies.

BlckBx Travel Ltd is an authorised agent of Protected Trust Services Ltd (“PTS”), member number 6471.

2. Our Role

Our role is to source, arrange and manage travel bookings on your behalf in accordance with your instructions.

Depending on the nature of your booking, we may act as:

- an agent for individual travel suppliers; and/or
- an authorised agent of PTS, the ATOL holder, in relation to ATOL-protected bookings

Unless expressly confirmed otherwise in writing, we do not act as the organiser of your travel arrangements and do not combine travel services into a package.

3. Your Contract

When we make a booking on your behalf, your contract will be with the relevant travel supplier or, where applicable, the identified organiser.

This may include:

- an airline
- a hotel or accommodation provider
- a tour operator
- a transfer or experience provider
- Protected Trust Services Ltd (PTS) or another organiser in the case of ATOL-protected or package bookings

The relevant supplier’s or organiser’s terms and conditions will apply to your booking.

4. ATOL Protection

We are an authorised agent of Protected Trust Services Ltd, ATOL number [INSERT].

Where you purchase a flight or flight-inclusive travel arrangement protected by ATOL, you will receive an ATOL Certificate. This sets out:

- what is financially protected
- who the organiser is

- where you can obtain further information

ATOL protection applies only to qualifying bookings as stated on your ATOL Certificate.

5. Package Travel & Linked Travel Arrangements

Where your booking constitutes a “package” under the Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements Regulations 2018, the organiser of the package will be identified in your booking confirmation.

In such cases:

- you will benefit from statutory rights under the Regulations
- the organiser is responsible for the proper performance of the travel services

Where we facilitate separate travel services which do not form a package, this may constitute a Linked Travel Arrangement. In such cases, your protection is limited and does not provide the same level of coverage as a package.

Unless expressly stated otherwise, BlckBx Travel Ltd does not act as the organiser of packages.

6. Booking & Payment

By making a booking you confirm that:

- you are at least 18 years old
- you have authority to accept these terms on behalf of all travellers

You are responsible for ensuring that all information provided to us (including names, dates and travel details) is accurate and complete.

To confirm a booking you must pay:

- a deposit or full balance as required by the supplier or organiser
- any applicable service or booking fees
- any insurance premiums

Funds may be held and processed in accordance with the Protected Trust Services (PTS) trust account model where applicable.

A booking is confirmed when we issue confirmation from the relevant supplier or organiser. You must check all documents immediately and notify us of any errors.

7. Prices

All prices are subject to:

- availability
- confirmation by the supplier or organiser
- currency fluctuations where applicable

We reserve the right to correct pricing errors prior to confirmation.

8. Service Fees

We may charge service or booking fees for arranging travel services. These will be communicated to you in advance.

Unless stated otherwise, such fees are non-refundable.

9. Changes & Cancellations by You

All changes or cancellations must be requested in writing by the lead passenger.

Any amendment or cancellation is subject to the terms of the relevant supplier or organiser and may incur charges up to 100% of the booking cost.

Certain travel services, including many flights, are non-changeable and non-refundable once booked.

10. Changes or Cancellation by the Supplier or Organiser

Travel suppliers or organisers may make changes to or cancel travel arrangements.

Where this occurs, we will:

- notify you as soon as reasonably possible
- assist you in liaising with the supplier or organiser

Any entitlement to refunds, compensation or alternative arrangements will be governed by the supplier's or organiser's terms and applicable law.

11. Travel Insurance

We strongly recommend that comprehensive travel insurance is purchased at the time of booking.

This should include cover for:

- cancellation
- medical expenses
- repatriation
- loss of luggage
- travel disruption

We accept no responsibility for losses incurred where adequate insurance is not in place.

12. Passports, Visas & Health Requirements

It is your responsibility to ensure that all travellers hold valid passports, obtain any required visas, and meet the health, vaccination and other entry requirements of every destination and transit point on your itinerary. Visas are compulsory for entry where required.

Passports should generally be valid for at least six months beyond your date of return, and some destinations impose additional requirements. Requirements can change at short notice, and it is your responsibility to keep yourself informed.

We may provide general guidance, but we do not guarantee the accuracy or completeness of such information and cannot advise on your individual circumstances. You must confirm current passport, visa, immigration and health requirements with the relevant embassies, consulates and health authorities before you travel.

Neither we nor the suppliers whose services form part of your booking accept any responsibility if you are refused entry to, or transit through, any country, or are otherwise unable to travel, as a result of your failure to hold correct or complete documentation. Any fines, penalties, or costs arising as a result are your sole responsibility.

13. Travel Advice

We recommend checking official government travel advice prior to departure, including the UK Foreign, Commonwealth & Development Office (FCDO).

Requirements may change at short notice.

14. Complaints

If you encounter a problem during your trip, you must:

- inform the relevant supplier or organiser immediately
- allow them the opportunity to resolve the issue

If the issue is not resolved, you should notify us in writing within 28 days of your return.

Failure to notify within this period may limit our ability to investigate and may affect your rights.

15. Our Liability

We will perform our services with reasonable skill and care.

Where we act as an agent, we are responsible for arranging bookings in accordance with your instructions and passing on relevant information provided by suppliers or organisers.

We are not responsible for the performance of travel services provided by third parties, except where required by law.

We rely on information provided by suppliers and do not guarantee its accuracy, completeness or suitability.

We shall not be liable for any indirect or consequential loss, including loss of enjoyment, loss of business, or loss of opportunity.

Our total liability to you, whether in contract, tort (including negligence) or otherwise, shall be limited to the total amount paid by you for the booking in question.

Nothing in these terms limits or excludes liability for:

- death or personal injury caused by negligence
- fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation
- any liability which cannot legally be excluded

16. Chargebacks

Where a chargeback or payment dispute is initiated, we reserve the right to recover any sums improperly disputed where services have been provided or arranged in accordance with your instructions.

17. Force Majeure

We shall not be liable for failure to perform our obligations where such failure results from events beyond our reasonable control, including events affecting suppliers, such as:

- natural disasters
- war or terrorism
- pandemics
- government restrictions

- industrial action
- transport disruption

18. Financial Protection

Where applicable, your booking may be financially protected through:

- the ATOL scheme (for qualifying flight-inclusive bookings)
- the PTS trust account model
- the supplier's own financial protection arrangements

Details will be provided at the time of booking.

19. Data Protection

We process personal data in accordance with the UK GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018.

Your data may be shared with:

- travel suppliers and organisers
- payment providers
- government authorities where required

Our Privacy Policy is available on our website.

20. Behaviour

We reserve the right to refuse a booking or withdraw our services where a client behaves in a threatening, abusive or disruptive manner.

21. Entire Agreement

These terms constitute the entire agreement between you and us and supersede all prior communications.

22. Third Party Rights

A person who is not a party to these terms shall have no rights to enforce any term under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

23. Governing Law

These terms are governed by English law.

If you reside in Scotland or Northern Ireland, you may bring proceedings in the courts of your jurisdiction.
